

MARVIN MOORE

Marvin Moore, a rancher and businessman is currently President of KLB Bison Ranch Inc. a bison ranch operation located at Debolt, Alberta, in the southern part of the Peace River Region.

The ranch is a cow – calf, backgrounder and feedlot operation marketing about 500 head of finished bison each year. In 1993 the Moore ranch began with the purchase of 39 head of Bison heifer calves from Elk Island Park.

He was elected to the Alberta Legislature as M.L.A. for Smoky River in August of 1971 and helped form the first Progressive Conservation Government in Alberta. Mr. Moore served in five different cabinet positions from 1975 to 1989 including: Agriculture, Municipal Affairs, Transportation, Hospitals and Medical Care, and Solicitor General. He was also Minister Responsible for Public Safety Services. After serving the Smoky River constituency in the legislature for 18 years he decided not to seek re-election in 1989.

Mr. Moore continues to be an active community volunteer and has served as a Director of the Bison Program of the Peace Country Classic Agrishow and has served as a member and President of the Debolt and District Agriculture Society. He also served as a trustee of the Alberta Heritage Foundation for Science and Engineering Research.

In 2008 Marvin was elected to the Board of Bison Producers of Alberta and in 2009 to the Board of the Canadian Bison Association.

Marv and his wife Fran have three grown children, Kerry, Lonny and Bernice and nine grandchildren and one great grandchild.
