

TREVOR GOMPF

Trevor, Jodie Gompf and sons; Bailey, Denver and Spencer live at Bison Spirit Ranch, North of Oak Lake, Manitoba. Trevor has always had a passion for livestock, whether it was horses he was raised on or bison which the Gompf family first purchased in 1997. In the past his main livelihood came from horses as he is a certified farrier. Trevor competed in rodeos as a bull rider for 10 years and as a pick-up man for 5 years. He continues to enjoy the rodeo circuit, traveling with Bailey as he follows in his Dad's footsteps. Trevor decided to take on more responsibility with the ranch and is now 100% dedicated to the bison. He has expanded the cow calf operation and has established a small feedlot. Trevor also serves as a director on the Manitoba Bison Association, and is a member on the Canadian Bison Registry; Canadian National Show & Sale Committees. In 2010 he became the sole owner of Bison Spirit Ranch. Trevor is passionate about the bison industry and in 2009 achieved one of his goals when he was recognized as Premier Breeder at the CNSS.
