The Canadian Farm Learning Centre

Is now a registered learning provider with Saskatchewan Agriculture.

Saskatoon, SK - January 23rd, 2019 - Eligible farmers are now able to apply for funding for courses offered through the Canadian Farm Learning Centre via the Agricultural Skills and Knowledge (ASK) Program.

ASK is managed by Saskatchewan Agriculture through the Canadian Agricultural Partnership program and provides a rebate to help producers access training related to farm management with the intent of increasing profitability and mitigating risks.

Applicants can apply for a rebate of up to 50 per cent of the total eligible costs to a maximum program payment of $2,500 per person per year. Maximum funding available is $10,000 per person.

Who We Are:

The Canadian Farm Learning Centre is an online management tool created to assist farm business owners in furthering their knowledge and understanding of farm management. The learning centre presents complex topics in an easy-to-understand online format that is structured to enhance adult learning.

Farmers are able to work through individual courses addressing farm legal and tax structures, financial management, succession planning, business management, and wealth management topics.

Once the farm business owner becomes familiar with a topic, they are provided with worksheets and quizzes to further their knowledge by incorporating the specifics of their own farm business.
