

Maria has more than 5-year experience in office administration. Other than her bachelor's degree, she got her certificate in Bookkeeping in Toronto where she also worked in one of the multinational companies for almost a year as part of the finance team. Prior to joining CBA, she served in one of the local companies in Regina as an Office Manager and Bookkeeper. She describes herself as goal driven and passionate in everything that she does. She is excited to work in an organization such as CBA where the mission and advocacies impact the whole of Canada.
