Prices continue to be strong with tight supply. Prime bulls are selling for up to $7.00/lb HHW for harvesting in Canada and up to $7.03/lb HHW Canadian delivered to the US market (based on this week's approximate currency exchange). Heifers are about 35 cents lower. Adjustments must be made for export processing and transportation costs for animals being shipped to the U.S. The Canadian dollar has been fluctuating in recent weeks, so watch conversion rates.

In the U.S. market, prices for finished bulls have pushed $510/cwt USD with heifers $30/cwt USD lower.

At a recent Jack Auctions bison video sale, 301 animals were sold from Saskatchewan and Alberta farms. Bull lots with average weights of 780 pounds sold between $4.98 and $5.04 per pound. A lot of 710 pound (average) heifers sold for $3.88/pound. Also a lot of mixed male and females that averaged 690 pounds sold for $4.25

Producers should research the parameters on which the prices are based. Parameters such as Canadian or US delivery transportation costs, weight ranges, age, exchange rates etc. This will assist producers in comparing prices on an equivalent basis.
